LAWTON is said to have surprised the hostiles. If this is true, he has also surprised the country.

THERE seems little probability that Stoneman's revolutionary scheme to overturn the Supreme Court will meet with serious consideration at the hands of the Legislature.

THE South is getting devout and thankful over the President's pension vetoes. The Florida Weekly Times says in speaking of his veto acts: "God has been merciful to the country in sending it such a President." Doubtless great and good Jefferson Davis would respond amen!

THERE is evidence that it is intended to jump Stoneman's irrigation propositions through with a hurrah. The manner in which these measures have been sprung is enough to show that it will be safe for the legislators to go slow. Stoneman has unquestionably put his foot in it, but the Republican legislators will have no excuse for inserting both feet.

THE TIMES has already called attention to the palpable fact that the election of a United States Senator is not legislation; and that the provision of the State Constitution that a special session of the Legislature shall not legislate upon any other subjects than those for which it is called, does not prevent it from electing a Senator. The San Francisco Bulletin seems to be the first to "tumble to" the almost equally palpable fact that neither is the framing of constitutional amendments legislation. The special session is therefore not limited even to Stoneman's amendments, but can propose any amendment it pleases. The Bulletin adds:

"Any other construction would resolve the Governor into a general Constitutional Tinker, who could at any time call the Legislature together to submit every crude or interested notion that might take possession of him, or be introduced to him in such a manner as to captivate his fancy."

THE Chronicle and Bulletin continue to make it lively for Stoneman's special session scheme. They charge that the whole movement is steered by a coterie of notorious land-grabbers, who have quietly secured vast water rights throughout the lower half of the State, and who have—by subsidized papers and hired "promoters"—kindled a popular excitement by which it is intended to rush through a lot of legislation which shall enable these men to acquire a tremendous water monopoly. The papers are not at all mealy-mouthed about the business. The Bulletin calls the movement "a million dollar steal." The Chronicle says:

"The design appears to be to take advantage of the public demand for water appropriation to execute a coup d'etat, by which the entire water supply of California may possibly be monopolized by James B. Haggin, Lloyd Tevis, George Hearst, William B. Carr and Charles Crocker."

AMUSEMENTS.

MODJESKA.—The sale of seats for Modjeska's engagement still continues to be large at the Opera House. Orders from here and the surrounding country are being daily received, and those who desire to attend and have not secured their seats may see the advisability of doing the same immediately. The box office is open from 10 a. m. to 5. p. m., and the repertoire may be seen in another column of the paper.

FORT STREET.

The Proposition to Widen it Abandoned.

About fifty Fort street property-owners assembled at the city court room last evening, I. W. Hellman presiding and J. W. Elliott acting as secretary.

M. L. Wicks moved that a surveyor be employed to run alignments for the proposed widening.

Mr. Hellman spoke at some length, advising strongly against precipitating any legal entanglements on the street.

He was followed by H. W. Mills, who said he thought that, with the present feeling of property-owners, the widening proposition ought to be abandoned altogether.

Geo. Gephard, the canvassing committee, said he believed that not more than half of the owners of the street would subscribe to the widening proposition.

F. E. Browne and others spoke against widening, when Col. H. H. Boyce offered the following:

Resolved, That all efforts looking to the widening of Fort street be permanently abandoned.

This resolution was passed unanimously.

The Secretary was instructed to withdraw the petition from Council.

Mr. Gephardt reported that 5400 front feet had been subscribed for at $1 a foot for the southern extension of Fort to Main street.

There will be a meeting of Fort street property owners at Hervey Lindley's office, opposite the Courthouse, at 10 o'clock this morning, to try and make up the balance of the guarantors. All the guarantors already subscribed should be present.

Hallidie's Congratulations.

The following note from A. S. Hallidie, inventor of the cable-road system, and President of the Cable Railway Company, San Francisco, is self-explanatory:

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal, July 17, 1886.

To the Editor of the Los Angeles Times—SIR: Referring to your interesting description of July 14th of the Temple-street Cable road, I beg to say that the cable road, built in 1879, in Dunedin, New Zealand, is a single track, the rope running both ways in the same tube, as is also the Highgate Hill cable road, running in England, and built in 1883, all of which are working under license from the owners of my patents, as in the Temple-street cable road.

The completion of the Temple-street cable road must be very gratifying to all concerned, especially to S. O. Brown, the engineer.

In many ways Los Angeles has displayed an enterprise and public spirit that overshadow any other city of its size. Very truly,

A. S. HALLIDIE.

Who is She?

J. F. Graham, clerk of Stackpole & Lincoln's Hotel at Barstow, sent the following telegram to Chief Davis yesterday, dated the night before: "If a party by name of Mayes keeps a hotel in Los Angeles, send him here for his daughter." Mr. Lincoln, who arrived yesterday from Barstow, and who is staying at the Nadeau, was interviewed about the matter, but knows nothing of the purport of the telegram. From inquiries made it would appear that there is neither a hotel nor boarding-house keeper here of that name, though there are some Mayeses at the Moote.

SACRAMENTO.

The Work of the Legislature Fairly Begun

A GREAT GRIST OF IRRIGATION BILLS.

The Question of the Legality of the Senate Seriously Mooted—Proceedings in Both Houses.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—Several conferences of the Irrigation Executive Committee were held last night and this morning, the result of which was to effect a change in the irrigation bills and amendments that were introduced in both houses this afternoon. One constitutional amendment, as originally drawn, provided that water corporations should be allowed at least seven per cent. on their investments. The committee, in response to the sentiments of Senators McClure, Knight, Vrooman and Assemblymen Moffitt and Munday, and others consented that this amendment be changed to a maximum of 8 per cent. and a minimum of six.

THE IRRIGATORS CONFIDENT.

R. Hudnut, a member of the committee, said this evening that the irrigators were confident of success, and that all their bills will pass. He admitted that a long and stubborn contest might ensue over the project of establishing the doctrine of prior appropriation. He contended that nearly all the irrigators of Kern, Tulare and Fresno counties are prior appropriators, and that there is practically no sentiment in favor of eliminating that doctrine from the system.

THE SUPREME COURT.

It is generally understood among the irrigators that the subject of legislating the Supreme Court out of office will not be pushed. The executive committee has taken no action on the subject, as they do not consider it any part of their business. All the Republican leaders say that the project is too revolutionary and will be abandoned.

IRRIGATORS IN COUNCIL.

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—Immediately after the Assembly adjourned about forty irrigation members of that body held a meeting in the Supreme Court Chambers, to consider the best course to pursue. The question was whether, when the bills were taken up, the previous question should be moved and the measures placed on their passage without debate or the door opened for discussion. It was finally agreed that a reasonable time for debate should be given so that no complaint could be made about railroading bills through.

STARTLING STATEMENT.

Senator Kellogg Declares the Senate not a Legal Body.

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—Senator W. W. Kellogg, of Plumas, has created considerable discussion and some consternation here by the statement that the present Senate now meeting in session is not a legal body. He says: "In 1883 the Legislature passed two Legislative Apportionment bills, one redistricting the Assembly under the new Constitution, and one the Senate. The Assembly bill went into effect at once, and the present Assembly in 1884 was chosen under it. The Senate, which was elected entire in 1882, desired to hold itself in office for four years, and it refused to put the act forming new senatorial districts into effect at once. There was some talk about usurpation and a dual Senate in 1885. It happened, however, that under the old apportionment twenty Senators were elected from the odd numbered districts and twenty from the even numbered. The Supreme Court in 1884 decided that the Senators from the odd numbered districts went out under the Constitution in 1884, and hence twenty members of the present Senate were elected at the last election for two years, or until January, 1887. Now, if you will examine the Senatorial Apportionment bill of 1883, you will discover that the concluding section says: 'This act shall not take effect until July 1, 1886.' The object was of course, to perpetuate the Senate of 1883 but what have we now? To-day there is a law which says, for instance, that Sacramento shall have one Senator. In the present Senate she has two. Which is the legal representative? As the law stands Alameda is entitled to six Senators. She has but two. Is that county compelled to be represented in this way when there is a law to the contrary in force? In other words, is the Senate convened by Gov. Stoneman a legal body? Can it pass any laws not open to the objection that they are illegal and void? These are conundrums that must be answered," said Mr. Kellogg, "before this thing goes much further, for it will be manifestly useless for us to sit here three weeks to mature legislation for the Supreme Court to declare invalid."

"This Senate," continued Mr. Kellogg, "was elected under the obsolete Constitution and a law that died on July 1st, twenty days before the Governor called it to assemble here, and I cannot see how it is now a live body. It strikes me very forcibly that if there is no authority in the books on the subject, an authority will have to be made by our Supreme Court before any legislation passed here can be enforced. It would be somewhat funny, would it not, to see the water men apply to a Supreme Court they have abused so badly as the present one for a decision upon a point involving the legality of all the legislation they have proposed for enactment here?"

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

Senate.

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—The Senate was called to order at 2 o'clock by Lieut.-Gov. Daggett, and thirty-four Senators answered to their names.

Mr. Kellogg moved to proceed with the election of a full set of officers, which Mr. McClure amended by offering a resolution to continue the present officers in their places.

The amendment was discussed and ruled out on a point of order, and Mr. Kellogg's motion was carried.

The following officers were then elected: President pro tem., Benjamin Knight of Santa Cruz; Secretary, Edwin F. Smith of Sacramento; Assistant Secretaries, T. J. Saxe and J. J. McCarthy; Minute Clerk, Ray Falk; Assistant Minute Clerk, Guy Sanlsbury; Journal Clerk, John F. Megher; Sergeant-at-Arms, J. G. Measse.

All were elected unanimously, being officers of last session.

The following were appointed to the Committee on Enles by Lieut. Governor Daggett: Cross, Del Valle, McClure, Johnson of Sonoma, and Whitney.

Senator Del Valle presented the first bill which was offered in the Senate today. It was an act putting into effect the constitutional amendment introduced by Mr. Wright, and repealing riparian rights.

In all six bills were introduced in the Senate, and all were on the water question. The most noteworthy was the modified version of the act giving water companies at least 7 per cent on their invested capital. The figures were changed to make the lowest interest on invested capital 6 per cent and the highest interest 8 per cent.

Mr. Whitney of Alameda introduced two bills, one making irrigation companies common carriers and giving them a lien on the land of debtors. The bill provides that in time of scarcity all applicants shall be served proportionately to the supply; subject, however, to reasonable rules as to time or order of delivery. These common carriers can require water rates to be paid in advance, and said rates shall be fixed annually by the Supervisors.

Another bill by the same Senator declares that the water of all rivers, lakes and ponds, together with its natural channels and beds, shall be declared the common property of the people of the State. Water used upon lands in private ownership is the property of the owner of such lands until allowed to escape by natural flow beyond such lands, when it becomes the common property of the people of the State, but the right to use such waters may be acquired by the owner of other lands, either by grant or pre-emption. Water developed in tunnels and wells is the property of the persons first developing it, and may be controlled and disposed of as other property but not wastefully, until it passes from the hands of such person by natural flow when it becomes the property of the people of the State. The bill further provides that a man may have an exclusive right to water falling on his land in the form of rain or snow. Arid lands that are worthless without water must have the first show where there is a system of irrigation, and irrigators who fail to comply with the law forfeit their franchise and viaducts.

Assembly.

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—The Assembly was called to order by Speaker Parks, at 2 p. m. All the members responded to the roll-call except the following: Beard, Goncher, Healy, Johnson, Long, McLean, Pettit, McMurray, Porter, Corcoran, Russ, Swayne, Torrey, Weaver and Wood.

After prayer by Chaplain Carroll Davis, Dr. May introduced a bill providing for the payment of the expenses of the extra session, as follows: Per diem and mileage of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators, $10,000; per diem and mileage of the Assembly, $21,000; pay of officers and clerks of the Senate, $2500; pay of officers and clerks of the Assembly, $3000; contingent expenses of Senate, $5000; contingent expenses of Assembly, $7500.

The rules were suspended for the introduction of this bill, and it was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Assemblyman Moffitt, of Alameda, introduced a bill to repeal section 1422 of the Civil Code. This bill reaches the heart of the irrigation question by repealing the statute upon which the riparian doctrine finds root. Section 1422 is the concluding section of the series providing for the appropriation of water. Referred to the Committee on Irrigation.

The regular programme of bills prepared and printed by the Irrigation Committee and already published, were introduced with few or slight changes. They were offered as follows:

By Mr. DeWitt, of Tulare.—An act declaring the water of every unnavigable natural stream to be the property of the public, subject to irrigation or other beneficial purposes. The English common law of riparian rights so far as it conflicts shall not be recognized as the rule of decision. Referred to Committee on Irrigation.

By Mr. French, of San Francisco—To amend Section 1 of Article XIV of the Constitution, providing that compensation to the person or corporation supplying water shall be fixed every three years by the Supervisors of city or county, county or town council, or other governing bodies. The rate of compensation shall not be less than 6 per cent nor more than 8 per cent upon the amount invested in construction and maintenance of such works. Referred to Committee on Constitution.

By Mr. Yule, of Trinity—Amending Article XIV of the Constitution, conforming it to the bill of Mr. DeWitt. Referred to the Committee on Constitution.

By Mr. Davis—Amendment to Article VI of the Constitution. Section 2 by it is amended to provide that the Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and four associate justices. Section 3 is amended to provide that the justices shall be elected by the State at large for twelve years. Upon assuming for the first time the associate justices shall draw lots to determine the terms of which two should expire at the end of six years. Section 4 defines the appellate jurisdiction of the Court. Section 17, as amended, fixes the salaries of each of the justices at $10,000 per annum. The salary of Supreme Judges in the counties of San Francisco, Alameda, San Joaquin, Los Angeles, Santa Clara, Sacramento and Butte is fixed at $6,009; in the counties of Yuba, Nevada and Sutter at $5,000, and in all other counties at $3,600. A new section is added, providing that the new Court, upon taking office, may take up for rehearing and determination any case which has been decided adversely by less than three members of the old Supreme Court. Referred to Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

On motion of Mr. Munday of Sonoma, the Speaker was instructed to add four members each to the Committees on Constitutional Amendments and Irrigation. The Speaker will announce the appointments to-morrow morning.

Arnold Goodfriend and John M. West were nominated to fill the vacancy in the office of Journal Clerk, made vacant by the resignation of A. L. Pratt. Referred to the Committee on Attaches and Employes.

Speaker Parks announced the following appointments of attaches: Assistant postmaster, J. R. Hoblitzell; door keeper, M. B. Corrigan; pages, John Givin, Wally Johnson, Willie Howe, Edward Short, Donald Dennison.

The Assembly then adjourned until 10 a. m. to-morrow.

IRIQUITOUS IRONS.

The Labor Agitator's Attempt to Swindle His Step-daughter.

WICHITA, Kas., July 21.—The arrest of Walter Drew, for robbing cars at Sedalia, Mo., is of peculiar interest, if the statement of Detective Delong, of the Missouri Pacific detective force, be true. He said, substantially: "This man and Martin Irons are conspirators to defraud the latter's step-daughter, Alice, out of her property. The death of her mother left the girl an heiress to two valuable lots in Rosedale, Kans. Failing in several attempts to get the property, Irons had Drew represent himself as Alice's husband. The property was sold, but, before a deed could receive Drew's signature, it was intercepted. These facts I can prove, and the conspirators will have to answer to them in court."

Drew, when interviewed in his cell, denied the charge, and says he has known Irons only two weeks.

EDITOR CUTTING.

Excitement Over His Detention in a Mexican Prison.

EL PASO, Texas, July 21.—This has been an exciting day in El Paso, and the air has been full of war and rumor of war; all on account of the American editor, Cutting, imprisoned in the Mexican jail at Paso del Norte, and denied trial and counsel. When it became known early in the day that Minister Jackson in the City of Mexico had demanded the immediate and unconditional liberation of the prisoner, and that the demand had not been complied with, excitement became great on the streets of El Paso, and all kinds of wild rumors were circulated. Propositions were made to raise a few hundred men and go over the river to liberate Cutting by force; but this was overruled and wiser counsel prevailed.

Elopement with the Coachman.

NEW YORK, July 21.—While at Garrison's, on the Hudson, with her parents, Emma Thompson, the sixteen-year-old daughter of a wealthy, Broadway merchant, fell in love with an English coachman, George Coats, and eloped and married him. When the couple were found out, Thompson was very angry, but finally forgave his daughter. Coats is thirty years old.

WASHINGTON.

How Payne's Apologists Defend Their Action.

HEARST HOPING IMPOSSIBILITIES.

Tevis Pushed for the Cabinet—A Live Apache at the Capital—Cleveland Goes to Albany.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—At noon the Senate proceeded to consider reports in relation to the election of Senator Payne.

Mr. Pugh argued that Payne was not connected in the remotest degree, by act or knowledge, with anything wrong, criminal or immoral in his election, while Mr. Hoar contended that the charges of corruption were made by men and by bodies of sufficient weight to compel the Senate to inquire into them.

Mr. Logan followed Mr. Hoar, and made a defense of the report signed by Messrs. Evarts, Teller and himself.

Mr. Teller followed Mr. Logan, and said that he was not on trial. He had no defense to make, neither to the people of Ohio nor any other State. The committee had kept steadily and truthfully in the line of precedents. There was not a single ruling that would justify the position taken by the minority. Mr. Teller was proceeding to analyze the testimony in the case, but gave way to a motion to adjourn, holding the floor to conclude his remarks to-morrow.

MANNING'S SUCCESSOR.

Lloyd Tevis Vigorously Pushed for the Position.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The Chronicle's Washington special says: "The Californian who has been mentioned in influential quarters as the successor of Daniel Manning as Secretary of the Treasury is Lloyd Tevis. Each member of the California delegation has been urged to press his appointment. The tide that is bearing him on runs deep and with force. He has a strong backing but it is doubtful whether the President would entertain such a proposition because Mr. Tevis comes from the far West and may be supposed to entertain silver views not in accordance with the Presidents conviction. At least the section where he dwells is emphatic in its disagreement with the President on the silver question."

WHAT TEVIS SAYS ON THE SUBJECT.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—In reference to the telegram stating that there are rumors in Washington that Lloyd Tevis is to be Manning's successor, Mr. Tevis said to-day: "I have not communicated any wish to hold the office to any person, and whatever has been done has been done without my sanction or consent. I suppose a few of my personal friends, like Stanford, Henley, Morrow, Markham and others, who know me pretty well, have complimented me by urging my name upon the President. Of course it would be a great honor to have a Western man—a Pacific Coast man—selected for Secretary of the Treasury, but I imagine that the President will select as Mr. Manning's successor, if there is to be one, some eminent financier from the East."

In conclusion Mr. Tevis remarked: "I do not think that I will be asked to enter the Cabinet."

HEARST'S HOPES.

He Proposes to Make a Fight for the Senatorship.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—A special despatch from Washington says: It is the opinion of leading lawyers of the Senate that the Legislature of California, at its extra session, can elect a United States Senator. Hearst is of this opinion, and in this connection it may be that it is not certain whether Hearst, had he served out the unexpired term, would be a candidate for reelection. Although people thought that he would not refuse to be in the fight, yet there were intimations that he had enough of the Senate. But now that the Legislature has been unexpectedly convened and he is about to be succeeded by a Republican, there is no longer any hesitancy. He is a candidate and proposes to make a vigorous and strong campaign. Senator Hearst thinks that if the Legislature stretches a point to elect his successor and goes outside of the subjects in the Governor's proclamation to put a Republican in his place, the injustice which he claims he will suffer will only give him a stronger hold on the people.

NATIONAL NOTES.

Gossip About Goode's Successor—A Veto Threatened.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Some persons in Washington are strongly inclined to believe that John Goode's successor as Solicitor General will be M. V. Montgomery, present Commissioner of Patents, and that his name will be sent to the Senate this week. It is known that Commissioner Montgomery enjoys the President's confidence in a marked degree. He is a frequent visitor at the White House, although the official duties of the Commissioner of Patents are not of a nature to require much personal intercourse with the Executive.

THE ADJOURNMENT QUESTION.

Representative Morrison, from the Ways and Means Committee, reported to the House the resolution for the adjournment of Congress sine die on the 28th inst., which was adopted to-day. It is not expected, however, that Congress will be able to adjourn on that day, but that the resolution will be amended by the Senate to adjourn on Monday, August 2. There is no reason why Congress should not adjourn on that day, provided the President does not veto one of the regular appropriation bills.

AN APACHE MURDER AT THE CAPITAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21. The Post's Washington special says: It has been ascertained that Chico, one of the thirteen Apaches who are in Washington, is the same chief who was the ringleader in the murder of Judge McComas and wife at Silver City, New Mexico. Secretary Lamar says he will take no action against Chico, who is a guest of the Interior Department. He will send Chico back to his reservation, and then it will be for the War Department to determine what course to pursue.

THE RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The House still insists upon consideration of the River and Harbor bill. It is stated that the President has notified one of his intimate friends that he intends to veto the bill. "If you have any consideration for me," said the President, the other day, "keep the bill away from the White House. I am determined to veto it, and I ask you to keep it at the Capitol, if possible."

CLEVELAND GOES TO ALBANY.

The President, accompanied by Secretaries Bayard and Whitney and Private Secretary Lamont, left Washington this afternoon for Albany.

NOT PARDONED.

President Cleveland to day denied that he had pardoned Mate Watts, of the Gatherer. He said that a pardon had been made out, but he would not sign it, owing to protests against it received from California, and Watts will have to serve out his sentence in the penitentiary.

THE POST-OFFICE.

Mr. Hellman and his Associates Get the Location.

The important question of the location of the Los Angeles post-office is at last definitely settled. The site opposite the Baker block, offered by I. W. Hellman, B. S. Baker and others, and already described by the TIMES, captures the prize. It is a big pull for that part of town, and adds another to the successful plans initiated by Walter S. Maxwell and other enterprising citizens to anchor down the center of the city where it is—the Temple street cable road, the Mott market, etc.

The parties interested still think it necessary to keep their plans quiet, but thus much is known. The syndicate, which comprises I. W. Hellman, B. S. Baker, A. J. Harrell, Walter S. Maxwell, Wm. Ferguson and perhaps others, will erect a superb hotel at the southwest corner of Main and Sonora streets, fronting 194 feet on Main and New High streets, and about the same distance on Sonora. It is intended to be five stories high, and second to none on the coast. At the south end of this building a 35 foot promenade will be cut through from Main street to New High, at an expense (counting the land) of $26,000. This will not be open for driving, but will be for the benefit of foot passengers. On the south of this will be erected the post-office building, which is promised to be the finest in the State. It will be three stories high, and will run from street to street. It will be built and arranged for its postal purposes, and will have every convenience therefor. The government gets it for four years free of rent, the property-owners of the vicinity putting up liberally therefor. Most of the tenants have been evicted, and work will begin very shortly.

IDENTIFIED.

The Strychnine Suicide at Glendale Last April.

On the 27th of April last, a young man about 25 years of age suicided in the orange grove of H. J. Crow, near Glendale, by taking strychnine. Though not dead when first discovered, he refused to disclose his identity, and died soon afterwards. No papers were found on his body, and he was buried as an unknown in the potter's-field, at the Evergreen Cemetery. One of Mr. Crow's farm hands was a few days ago in Tulare county, where he met a man who, in the course of conversation, being told about the suicide, asked for a description of the man. As soon as he heard that the deceased's hair was clipped, his face clean shaved, and the features clean cut, and after a description of the clothes worn by the unknown was given, he said that the deceased was one Jack Sweeney, a resident of Philadelphia, but of Irish birth. He said that they had tramped together, and worked for three days laying a sidewalk in front of a barber shop in Los Angeles. After that they resumed their tramp north, but soon separated. The deceased said several times to his companion that he was going to suicide on account of some trouble with his wife back in Philadelphia.

Hon. Chris Green, of Sacramento, is stopping at the Nadeau, and will preside in the judges' stand to-day, at the opening of the Club races.

Killip, the pool man, is here, and will sell at the track to-day, and at Reid's this evening.

DELIGHTED WITH IT.

The Times-Mirror Sewing Machine in Newhall.

NEWHALL, July 19.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: My wife desires me to say to the TIMES-MIRROR Company that she received her new sewing machine, the "High-arm Mirror," last week; that she has used it three days, doing various kinds of work with it, testing it to her satisfaction, and that she is perfectly delighted with it. She says that it is everything the company claims for it.

I will say on my own hook, "It is a thing of beauty," and I hope that it may prove a joy forever." There is nothing like keeping one's life-partner a little joyful, and especially when it can be done so cheaply. Thanks to the TIMES-MIRROR Company.

J. W. MYERS.

NEARLY DROWNED.

A Baby's Almost Fatal Swim in a Zanja.

A little baby girl, 18 months old, the daughter of a waiter at the Commercial restaurant, named Dupont, walked into the zanja at the back of her father's house, on Georgia street, yesterday, at half-past 4 in the afternoon. She floated down in the zanja nearly 300 yards before she was discovered. A little boy, seeing the baby's feet sticking out of the water, gave the alarm, and the little innocent was rescued. She was senseless, but by the care of Dr. Baker, who was immediately sent for, she was resuscitated. Unless something unexpected sets in, the baby will recover all right from her early dangerous experience.

The Woman's Exchange

Is intended to benefit deserving and industrious poor women, by affording them a chance to dispose of their work. The Exchange furnishes choice articles of food, cooked to order if wished, and articles of women's fancy work, at low prices. The commission for selling is barely enough to pay the small expenses of the Exchange. Call and see the work. No. 17 S. Main street.

Has Typhoid Fever.

Willis Stephenson, a boy whom Officer Fletcher found wandering and acting in a strange manner, at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, on Fort street, was by him taken to the police office for investigation. It was discovered in the daytime that Willis was sick, and upon examination Dr. Lindley pronounced him suffering from typhoid fever. He was removed to the County Hospital in the afternoon.

Denigos of It.

John Ericson, who is in the county jail awaiting trial for stabbing first-mate Richard Bradley, of the barkentine Wolfoot, writes to the TIMES to deny the report that he had killed a man at Puget Sound. He says he never had a quarrel in his life before that at San Pedro, and does not want unfounded rumors used against him.

Big Hosts.

PACIFIC COAST.

Washington Territory Has an Indian Scare.

TROOPS SENT TO PROTECT SETTLERS.

The New Fast Express to the East—An Apache Camp Surprised—Other Coast News.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

SPOKANE FALLS, W. T., July 21.—Reliable information regarding the rumored Indian troubles in Calispel Valley has not yet been received, but there are grave fears of an outbreak.

The following special to the Review from Fort Spokane was received: "An Indian runner arrived at the fort direct from the Calispel country, and reports that a Calispel Indian killed two white men on that reservation Sunday afternoon. General Carlin left Fort Coeur d'Alene at daylight this morning with two companies of infantry for the Calispel country. The volunteer company which left here yesterday returned at noon to-day. They went as far as Wild Rose prairie, where they found the settlers congregated at two or three different points under a strong guard of settlers from the surrounding country, but they saw few Indians. They returned for supplies, but hearing that General Carlin had gone there with soldiers they have decided not to return till further particulars can be obtained. There are now two companies of the Third Infantry and one of cavalry in the Calispel valley. The excitement here has been greatly intensified by a rumor that the murdered men mentioned in the above dispatch are Constable Joe Warner, of this place, and his brother, who left here about ten days ago, in search of two Calispel Indians, who are wanted for the murder of Geiger, over a year ago, and Officer Rusk, three months ago. Sheriff Whittier, with an Indian guard, left for the Calispel country to investigate the matter."

Resolved, That the Democratic party recognizes that the freedom of action and independence of the judiciary lies at the very foundation of American institutions and it deeply deplores anything that would even seem like an attack by the executive or legislative department upon a co-ordinate branch of government the maintenance of the independence and dignity of which is essential to the cause of law and order and to the stability of civilized society.

THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1886.

Editorial Correspondence.

CHICAGO, July 12, 1886.—It has been two or three weeks since I parted from my readers at the Continental Divide, on the line between Arizona and New Mexico, and I must confess to, and apologize for, my shameful neglect in leaving them for so long a time in so inhospitable a spot. The tierra caliente of daytime and the tierra fria of nighttime, in that part of the continent, each have their drawbacks; and, for a denizen of the orange groves of Southern California, used to the luxuries of the soil and climate, and fanned by the cool breath of the sea, the great interior plateau has few attractions. The transformation from the one to the other region is too great.

The descent of the pass on the Colorado side is a grand experience in "riding on the rail." The train whirls down the winding slope, revealing at every bend new and striking views all the way to the foot, where Trinidad sits and grows. It is a shifting panorama, showing in quick succession a multitude of objects of interest—the mud houses of the natives strung along the narrow cañon; mines, smelting works, and miners habitations; adobe and frame saloons, their doors garnished with enticing signs of foaming lager overflowing from impossible mugs and preposterous "schooners;" burros, goats, grass, gardens and growing "garden sass;" cattle and horses, chickens and dogs, corn patches, alfalfa strips and chili colorados under cultivation and on the string; variegated clothes hung out to dry on picket and pole in front of the rude houses; dark-skinned natives in their sashes and sombreros; miners, black and brawny; vaqueros and teamsters, swart and dun; green slopes covered with cedar, pine and oak; cottonwoods and acacias in the valley; the singing stream, and in the distance Pike's Peak-lofty, white-crowned and majestic, standing out from the other blue, a giant among his fellows.

The highly rarefied atmosphere of the elevation over which we had passed had a tendency to make the claret flow from the proboscis of more than one passenger, but I, being lean, escaped without serious loss of blood.

Trinidad is a smart town of 5000 inhabitants, with daily papers and things. Here a bride and groom boarded the train, a bevy of pretty girls and their attendants seeing them off on their wedding trip. It was a repetition of "the old, old story," always fresh, ever new, and one that has won the interest of men and women in all ages and among all peoples where one wife is the rule. (Utah excepted.)

We rolled out of Trinidad depot as night was descending, and entered upon the great plains that sweep eastward from the base of the Raton range. Here considerable evidences of cultivation were seen, broad fields of corn and grain stretching away from the track on either side. Large bands of cattle, sheep and goats were grazing on the abbreviated herbage, and looking as well as could be expected under the circumstances. Night here shut her curtain down.

When I awoke, late next morning, the train was flying along towards the center of the State of Kansas, that vast corn-field where hog and hominy, politics and prohibition, cyclones and dug-outs engage the principal attention of the populace. I had never been in bleeding Kansas before, and was much pleased and interested by my prairie voyage. The Atchison road runs through a prolific and promising section of the State. In variety of production it cannot, of course, compare with California—in fact, Kansas can't hold a candle to the Golden State in that respect; but I found a greater extent of production than I was prepared for. There are miles and miles of country which present an almost unbroken series of cultivated farms—corn, wheat, rye, oats, meadows and inclosed grazing lands, upon which roam herds of fat cattle, fine horses, robust hogs and thick-fleeced sheep. The corn lands vastly predominate in area, however, and the crops were looking well—better than the other growing crops. Kansas would captivate a Kentuckian, for the average denizen of the dark and bloody ground could not fail to note the immense possibilities of the bleeding State in the direction of sour mash.

The landscape is thickly dotted with farm-houses, some tasteful, others looking as though they might be occupied by men and women of Pike, that country made famous as the birthplace of Joe Bowen, and as being "turrible hard on wimmen and oxen." Smart villages and big towns are numerous, and the State is developing rapidly. I suppose people will continue to live in Kansas—until they find out that there is such a country as Southern California.

In summer-time—in the smiling month of June—Kansas is certainly a beautiful State. It is a region of vast spreading prairies and undulating surfaces, with no mountains and few large hills, where the land is very fertile and the whole face of the country a brilliant green. Its numerous streams are running full, and their banks are fringed with luxuriant growths, among which are the cottonwood, the poplar, the sycamore, the black walnut, the birch, the oak, the elm, the alder and numerous smaller trees and shrubs. Timber culture is generally practiced throughout the State, "Arbor Day" being an event of the year which the rural population do not neglect. The result is a vast number of young groves coming forward, which are destined to develop into considerable forests and serve to avert any danger of a timber famine in the future. Annual tree-planting is a wise custom, that might be profitably followed in California to a greater extent than it has ever been.

To one good feature of trans-continental travel by this route I freely bear testimony here. This is the eating houses. They are good all the way from Los Angeles to the Missouri river—on the California Southern, on the Atlantic and Pacific, and on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé lines. At all the eating stations you can get a good meal, well cooked, well served, on clean tables, and with expert and polite attendance. The improvement over the condition of things gastronomical a few years ago on Pacific roads is so marked as to be noticeable by all observant travelers possessed of well-regulated stomachs.

We passed Topeka, the capital, situated on the sluggish river Kaw, crawling turbid and dark to wards the Missouri, and rolled on towards Kansas City, that modern wonder in western town building, whose growth is a marvel, and whose energy and enterprise are famous the country through. Kansas City has a set of business men whose very stride and personal appearance tell you that they are "business" all over. They are great big, broad-brained, broad-shouldered fellows, with heavy jaws, a resolute look in their clear eyes, and they put their feet square down on the ground in a way that denotes strength and decision of character. No dudes are these whole 'uns of Kansas City; and in their hands, backed and led by her splendid newspapers, the destiny of this rival metropolis to St. Louis is safe. She has a population of 130,000 already, and, like John Brown's soul, is ever marching on. Los Angeles may well be proud to follow in her wake and emulate her splendid example.

As we neared the city, the heavens began to darken, great clouds rolled in the sky, the air was full of a strange oppression, and the Californians among the passengers cast significant glances at each other, and said in whispers, "We're in for one of those Kansas cyclones now!" But, when we rolled into the depot, our fears were quickly dispelled. The cause of the sombre hue of things was explained; the dark truth developed itself. A big Kansas City colored picnic party was just returning from the suburbs, and filled the platforms and Union Depot plumb full.

After a day's stay in famous Kansas City, I came on to Chicago, the wicked city by the big lake, and have been here ever since—a California lamb among the Illinois wolves. Commiserate me!

A Curious Palm.

Ontario Record.]

W. B. Chaffee has a date palm on the grounds of his residence on A street, set out two years ago, which is now in bloom. This, we believe, is an unheard-of occurrence, as the date palm doesn't usually bloom until about five years old. All who will take the trouble to examine the palm can satisfy themselves that it has a cluster of flowers just opening. The blossoms began to appear just after a heavy irrigation. We suppose this freak must be counted as one of the results of the marvelous fertility of Ontario soil.

Loving Tohtow.

San Francisco Bulletin.]

Company G, First Infantry, brought back from Arizona an Apache boy who had been the adopted child of the command for about two years. He would not be left behind when the soldiers started for California, and went on foot twenty-two miles to meet them at the Needles, where they took the cars. He is named Tohtow. Each member of the command contributes a small sum to his support monthly, and he assists in the mess-room.

CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY

At Long Beach, for the Busy Nine Days.

Long Beach is rapidly becoming famous as a summer resort. Nowhere on the Pacific can there be found such a beautiful beach for driving or surf-bathing. This charming place is now having a rare treat in the Chautauqua Assembly of Southern California, now in session, under the efficient management of Rev. S. J. Flemming, Superintendent of Instruction and Secretary, assisted by Rev. I. L. Spencer and Prof. G. R. Crow, President.

The exercises of Tuesday were highly entertaining and instructive, beginning at 8 a. m. with devotional services. At 9 a. m. ministers' institute. At the same hour the kindergarten, under the direction of Miss Nellie M. Mackey, assisted by Miss Clark, convened in the chapel of the great Tabernacle. These ladies are both graduates in their profession, and their instructions are highly entertaining, and the little folks enjoy them beyond measure. This department is filled to overflowing, and is one of great attraction.

At 10 o'clock came an eloquent and instructive address by Maj. Joseph Hardie, of Alabama, a member of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. Subject: "The Workings of the Organization and How to Save Young Men."

At 11 o'clock the school of cookery, under the direction of Mrs. Prof. G. R. Crow, gave a practical demonstration of that high art, in which many ladies are proficient. Miss Hartsell, of Los Angeles, in the presence of the class of ladies—with a sprinkling of gentlemen—prepared the material, and, at the same time giving the recipe, baked a delicious cake.

Prof. E. R. Watson, of the Boston School of Oratory, has a large class in elocution, which is increasing daily, and is doing good work.

The musical department, under the efficient teacher, Miss Carrie Elwood, met at 4 o'clock. This class is large and still growing in numbers and interest, and is one of the features of the assembly.

The C. L. S. C. Round Table met at 5 p. m., and was highly edified by a lecture entitled "Roman Influence on the World of Art," by Mrs. Ira More.

At 8 p. m. a very large and intelligent audience greeted Col. Homer B. Sprague, Ph. D, in the great Tabernacle, to hear his famous lecture on "Richess." He is a natural speaker, commanding the attention of his audience, and entering at once into his theme with all his powers. His memory is tenacious and never deserts him nor gives up a trace. He was often applauded during its delivery.

The following is the programme for to-day:

C. L. S. C. RECOGNITION DAY.

8 a. m.—Devotional hour.

9 a. m.—Ministers' Institute. Lecture, "The Preparation for the Ministry," Rev. W. B. Stradley, A. M. College classes.

10 p. m.—Lecture, "Life and Organization," J. H. Wythe, M. D., D. D.

4 p. m.—Specialties: Kindergarten, cookery, music, elocution.

5 p. m.—C. L. S. C. Round Table. Lecture, "Thomas Carlyle—Post Mortem," Prof. N. M. Wheeler, A. M., Ph. D.

7 p. m.—Denominational prayer meetings.

8 p. m.—Lecture, "Potential Ideas," Rev. C. C. Stratton, D. D., President University Pacific. I. L. S.

Adjourned to July 22, at 9 a. m.

A Rapid Improvement.

The laying of a double track on Main street, for the Main-street and Agricultural Park Railroad, is proceeding with great energy. A new track has been laid from Washington Gardens as far as the Cathedral of Santa Vibiana, employing a great number of graders and track-layers. At the rate the work is progressing, it will take but a few days before the new track is completed to the city terminus. Then the old track, now in operation, will be torn up, and another one, five feet apart from the one now being laid, will be constructed. This will do away with switches on Main street, as far as the Washington Gardens. The track now being laid is about a foot lower in many places, and in none less than six inches lower than the track in use. This is to conform with the grade adopted for Main street. The large traffic of the street cars and the ever increasing population out towards the Washington Gardens have rendered this new system a matter of necessity.

A Lazy Major.

In the United States there are but two ladies, who in due form and by the highest military authority of the country, have been made officers of the G. A. R. with recognized rank and titles. One of these is a native of our city, the accomplished social favorite, Mrs. Mamie Perry Davis, who was made a Major by Gen. W. T. Sherman during his visit in Los Angeles. The officers of the G. A. R. at San Francisco, have insisted that it was due to the great occasion as well as herself, that Mrs. Davis should come up, and in the great procession, on horseback, take the place to which her military rank entitles her, and she has finally decided to do so. With her parents, she will depart for the north about the middle of next week and be absent ten or twelve days.

Deaf Mute Services.

The Rev. Dr. Gallandet, rector of St. Ann's church, New York, and the Rev. Mr. Mann, now attending the convention of deaf-mute teachers in San Francisco, expect to hold a service for this class of people in St. Paul's church, Los Angeles, on Tuesday evening, July 27th, at 8 o'clock.

Incorporated.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the Downey Wine and Fruit Company. The principl place of business will be in Downey. The capital stock will be $16,000, divided into 1000 shares of $10 each. The directors for the first year are E. R. Wylie, J. J. Tweedy, J. K. Barnes, J. W. Venable and S. G. Reynolds.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES,
Los Angeles, Wednesday, July 21.

Grain Bags are quoted lower to-day, in sympathy with the San Francisco market. The corner in the latter city is apparently weakening under the liberal offerings of outside lots of Bags, and sales there are reported under 7 cents. The Belgic, on the 17th, brought 686,000 Calcutta Wheat Bags, and the Starbuck, on the 19th, brought 1,510,000. The Pythomene, on the 16th, brought over 9,000,000. No more are expected this season by sail. The next steamer will not be due until the 29th. By auction, on Monday, 5,000 sold at 6.95c, and 20,000 at 6.75c. On the street 6¾@7c was named for this season's Bags, and on Call 7@7¼c for July delivery was named.

The American Sugar Refinery has made a reduction of ⅛c per pound on extra C and Golden C grades, and also added another grade to the list, the Standard (A), at 5⅛c.

The amount of Silk exports from Japan for the year ending May 31st, was 25,226 bales, of which 15,095 bales came to the United States and 10,131 bales were shipped to Europe, while the exports for the corresponding time last year were 25,421 bales, of which 11,126 bales came to this country and 14,295 bales went to Europe.

Eggs were again lower to-day, and sales were reported at 23c.

The new crop of Mustard Seed will soon be on the market. It is said that the yield will be larger than in any previous season, and dealers look for low prices in consequence. Purchases in the country have already been made at 2c per pound when gathered. California is the only State in the Union in which much attention is given to cultivating Mustard. Brown Mustard grows wild in many sections, and farmers consider it a nuisance, as it shoots up among the grain. Europe, Australia and South America all produce Mustard Seed, and the California article has to compete with imports from those countries.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Government bonds strong.

Although the stock market recorded more business than usual last week, the market to-day was subject to fits of activity and strength, or vice versa, but a general advance took place in the last hour, and the market closed firm at about the best figures of the day. The inactive shares were absolutely featureless. Closing figures generally show advances. Lake Shore being up 1 per cent. and others for fractional amounts.

"Hello! Old fellow! What have you been doing to yourself? You look like a subject for the undertaker," exclaimed the man on the right.

"I have been taking mercury and potash mixtures until they have nearly ruined me," squeaked the old man on crutches.

"And I," said the other, "have been taking the genuine Swift's Specific, which has built me up from the first dose."

Swift's Specific

Is Nature's own remedy, made from roots gathered from the forests of Georgia. The method by which it is made was obtained by a half-breed from the Creek Indians, who inhabited a certain portion of Georgia, which was communicated to one of the early settlers, and thus the formula has been handed down to the present day. The demand has been increasing until a $100,000 laboratory is now necessary to supply the trade. A foreign demand has been created, and enlarged facilities will be necessary to meet it. This great Perfect health, perfect drainage, perfect title and a central location sell the Williamson tract. The books show the names of our shrewdest merchants and traders.

Don't Get Mad, My Boy,

If your lots are poor, don't publish it. The Electric Railway Homestead Association have never mentioned the Wiesendanger lots, but, if the shoe "fits," we can't help it.

Everybody Says So.

The Electric Railway Homestead Association tract is the daisy. Invest your cash there, where large returns are certain.

It Seems So.

When any one "gets left" they get mad. The Electric Railway Homestead Association have such choice property they don't "get left." See all, and make your own comparisons.

Before February 1st.

There is no question, and no competent real estate man disputes it, that the Williamson lots will more than double in value before February 1st.

SNIDE, SNIDER, SNIDEST.

Sensational Arrest of the Telephone Manager Here.

E. N. Snider, manager of the Sunset Telephone-Telegraph Company in this city, was arrested yesterday afternoon at 3:30, in front of Ed McGinnis's saloon, by Deputy Constable N. W. Thompson, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. He was immediately taken before Justice Banney, who released him under $250 bonds to appear for examination to-day at 2 o'clock p. m. The circumstances which have caused Snider's arrest are told as follows: On the 14th inst., the San Pedro Lumber Company sent their check for $66 50, drawn on the Los Angeles Bank and payable to the Sunset Telephone Company, to the manager of the Los Angeles Telephone office, by mail. As Snider was in Colton at the time his mail was forwarded to him there, and he received the check, which he kept, though he handed all other checks into the company's bank. Last Sunday Snider did not show up at the office, and, though he telephoned Assistant Superintendent J. Lawrence, now on a visit of inspection in Los Angeles, that he would be on hand on Monday morning, he failed to turn up at that time. Enquiries made on Monday morning showed that he had left in the company's team, accompanied by a young man, on a trip to Pasadena. It is said that he was on a spree and made a lengthy stay at the Arroyo Seco gardens. When he got to Pasadena he went to Charles Hill, agent of the Hall Safe Company, and requested him to identify him at the San Gabriel Valley Bank. Mr. Hill, knowing Snider, willingly did so, and Snider cashed the check in favor of the Telephone Company by endorsing his name and title of manager. He returned in the evening to Los Angeles, and was asked by Mr. Lawrence, who had then just become aware that the San Pedro Lumber Company had sent the check some time previous, that he had the check and would bring it to the office the next day. He did not show up again, however, and was only seen once, riding on a Main street and Agricultural Park car, until the time of his arrest. In the meantime Mr. Lawrence did all he could to stop the payment of the check by the local banks, if not already cashed, but it came in for collection from Pasadena in due course. The strange part of the affair is that the San Gabriel Valley Bank paid the money so easily, since it was payable at a bank in another locality, and the telephone office in Pasadena, where an inquiry would have prevented the payment, is but twenty feet from the bank. When Mr. Hill, who had identified Snider, heard of the crookedness of the matter, on Tuesday, he came to this city and swore to a complaint against Snider, late at night. The charge against Snider is that of obtaining money under false pretenses, by representing that he was the manager of the Sunset Telephone Company, and as such had full power to cash checks payable to said company, whereas he was no such manager, and was not entitled to cash and indorse the checks made payable to said company.

The Assistant Superintendent says that he discharged Snider on Sunday for being absent without leave, and that on Monday night, when he stated that he had the check at home, Snider importuned him to revoke the order of dismissal. The accounts of the ex-manager have not been overhauled as yet, but it is supposed that he is somewhat short in his coupon accounts. Snider is a very intelligent telegraph operator, and nothing but drink can be the cause of his fault. It has been whispered lately that he went on sprees a good deal.

WATER RATES.

A Protest from the Council to the Legislature.

The special Council committee, composed of Dr. H. Sinsabaugh, President, E. W. Jones and J. Frankenfeld, members, and J. W. McKinley, City Attorney, appointed by the City Council at its last session to memorialize the Legislature, now in session, in opposition to the proposed changes contemplated in the law fixing the water rates, drew up the following protest yesterday morning:

To the Honorable Senate and Assembly of the State of California: GENTLEMEN—We have been instructed by the Council of the city of Los Angeles, upon its behalf and in the interest of the people of the city of Los Angeles, to forward to your honorable bodies an emphatic protest against the proposition to amend the Constitution of the State of California so that water-rates shall be fixed but once in three years, and shall be such as will yield a net return of at least seven per cent. per annum upon the amount invested in the construction and maintenance of the works.

Such an amendment would practically abolish entirely the power now vested in counties and cities to regulate water rates and have the consumers at the mercy of the water companies. As representatives of the people of Los Angeles, we feel justified in declaring that they are unalterably opposed to any such change in the provision of the constitution. The present law concerning the regulation of water rates is satisfactory to the people, and we do most earnestly protest against any modification thereof.

By order of the Council of the city of Los Angeles.

Copies of this memorial, duly signed, were immediately forwarded by mail to Hons. R. F. Del Valle and Henry T. Hazard at Sacramento.

A Liberal Response.

George E. Gard, M. L. Wicks and L. E. Moeher, the Grand Army sub-committee, rustled around about two hours yesterday afternoon and collected $400 for the entertainment of the coming veteran visitors. This makes about $3200 thus far. They were liberally treated everywhere. Ex-Mayor Thom, who fought "on the other side," during the war, subscribed $20, remarking that he had met a very warm reception from the veterans, twenty-five years ago, and this was his first chance to get even.

Womanhood.

The brightest page in human history, will be the subject of an illustrated lecture, to ladies only, to be delivered at 2 o'clock this afternoon, in the Grand Opera Hall, by Dr. A. P. Truesdell. This will be the third of a series of special instructions being delivered by the Doctor in this city to ladies and gentlemen separately, and, like his public course of illustrated lectures, are calling forth increasing interest and attendance from week to week.

Parties in Any of the Adjoining Towns

Please bear in mind that John C. Bell, the auctioneer, will sell at auction on Saturday next, at 10 o'clock—read the advertisement in another column—ladies' buggy and saddle horses; ladies' fine park phaetons; piano box; white chapel buggies; imported single and double buggy harness. Also, twenty fine dairy cows from the Downey dairy, all to be seen on the morning of sale.

Fire! Fire!! Fire!!!

A. W. Besserer, the proprietor of the Besserer fire extinguisher, will give the liveliest test ever seen in Los Angeles with his extinguisher, at the Haymarket, Los Angeles street, on Saturday, July 24th, at 3:30 and 8:30 p. m. All property owners are invited to be present. This is not a bottle grenade extinguisher, but works on an entirely new principle. See it and be convinced.

It Won't Pay You.

It won't pay you to call names. It only shows your "ears." Our advice is: "Stick to your bis." The manager of the Electric Railway Homestead Association is too busy selling lots to notice your trash.

Misrepresentation Does Not Avail

Several well-known citizens, Messrs. Santous, Vallon and others, residing immediately adjacent to the Williamson tract, state that a healthier locality can not be found. Not a case of sickness has occurred in their families for years. This is the last and only good residence property at $390 per lot. The books will soon close.

No Poor Property.

If our lots were poor, perhaps we would get mad every time anyone said "poor lots," but the Electric Railway Homestead Association only asks the public to see all and judge for themselves.

Reflecting Discreditably on Other Tracts

Is not honest business practice. Selling lottery tickets is illegitimate and not practiced by business men who sign their names. Fair business sales in Wiesendanger's City Tract. Free ride from 23 N. Spring.

See All and You will Buy of Us.

The Electric Railway Homestead Association only ask you to see their lots and compare them with all others, then use your own judgment in buying.

WRIGHT AND WRONG.

The County Surveyor Arrested on a Curious Charge.

County Surveyor E. T. Wright was yesterday afternoon arrested, upon the complaint of Christian Bomke, of San Gabriel, by Deputy Constable Ledbetter, and taken before Justice Ranney, who allowed him to go upon his own recognizance. The charge upon which the County Surveyor was arrested is that of official extortion, a misdemeanor. The complaint alleges that on or about the 23d of December, 1885, the defendant, then the duly elected, qualified and acting Surveyor of the county of Los Angeles, obtained as such official $170 from the complainant, with his consent, under color of official right. Briefly stated it means that Bomke believes Wright charged him too much money for making a survey as County Surveyor. Justice Ranney, who was asked about the particulars, said that there was nothing in it, and that Mr. Wright had charged only the legal fees. The case will come up for hearing hereafter.

Well Armed.

Officer Roberts yesterday evening arrested one John Woods on Main street, near Congress Hall, for being disorderly. When he was searched at the station he was found armed with a revolver and a razor. His cash assets consisted of twenty cents. A charge of carrying concealed weapons was booked against him.

Notice.

A meeting of the Flower street property owners, from Second to Temple, will be held in the City Council Chambers on Friday evening at 7:30 sharp.

That Irresponsible Blankhead

Williamson Tract—188 Lots

This offering of first-class lots for residences in the midst of the handsomest improvements in Los Angeles will be the last opportunity to acquire centrally located lots at the owner's price per acre. Three hundred and ninety dollars is a nominal sum, and the payments are extended over one and a half years without interest. The location is within twelve minutes of the postoffice, with two lines of street cars (the Hellman line and the Electric Motor Railway) directly to the property.

They will be all elegantly finished inside, in Eastlake style, even to the kitchens. The houses will be 24x28, parlor and chamber, with sliding doors, dining-room, large hall, spacious kitchen, bath-room and portiocs.

There are no Narrow Streets and no side lots. Every street is 60 feet wide.

The masts for the electric lights are now being erected. These masts, being four in number on the City Center and this tract, will illumine every lot and residence with a flood of light; an ornament, a necessity and a safeguard.

The success of the homesteads of the Southern California Land Company is strictly owing to the low rate at which its properties are placed before the public, and the fact that it only offers first-class city locations. This Company points with just pride to the Childs Tract, Columbia Colony, Urmston Tract and the City Center Tract, the latter immediately adjoining the present lots.

A new feature of this beautiful property will be the planting of all the streets with large ornamental shade trees. A nursery of 4500 splendid trees of large size is already on the tract ready to be set out in the fall.

Careful gardeners will be employed by the Company to take charge of them for one year.

Four Handsome Villa Residences

TO BE ERECTED

Planted Sidewalks, four feet wide, with substantial stringers, 2x4, will be placed on each side of every street.

Think of the location, Eleventh to Pico, and but two blocks from Pearl street.

The sale of this tract is on the homestead plan. The land is sold as an entirety, and delivered over to the subscribers with all the improvements of villa residences, planted sidewalks, electric lights, ornamental shade trees, etc., without further charge than the amount received in the aggregate from the subscribers, each one of whom has a vested right in the entire tract.

The meeting of the subscribers for the distribution of these lots is fixed for November 6, 1886. They agree to a mode of distribution (according to the Homestead Laws of 1862) on the same plan as that of the Childs tract, the Urmston tract and the City Center tract, all inaugurated by this firm.

The street railway on Pearl street, at the corner of Pico street, is within two blocks of the tract, and in sixty days Col. Hoyland's electric motor road will be completed on Pico street past this entire property.
